I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid for see.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned by back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play,
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undo grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.*

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

*For I am ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.*

II Timothy 4: 6-8 (KJV)

Loretta
BUTLER CAMPBELL

Loretta Butler Campbell was born February 5, 1946 in Charleston, South Carolina. She was the beloved only child of the late Lillie Mae Roundtree. She departed this life on December 9, 2018 at Heartland of Columbia, South Carolina, surrounded by family and friends.

She was educated in public schools of Charleston County. "Retta," as she was affectionately known, was a housewife and homemaker, both of which she loved to do. She took great pride in taking care of her family and home.

Loretta and Joseph Alonzo Butler reared their only child with love and devotion. She was often teased about being "a classy diva," even though she was confined to a wheelchair. was a lifelong resident of Charleston's east side, until her health declined and her son moved her to Gadsden, South Carolina to be near family. Retta had a beautiful smile that was loved and will be truly missed by all who adored and knew her.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, her only son, James (Della) Butler; grandchildren: Willie (Lynn) Shiver, Terrance Green, James (Dhandra) Butler, Palacio Shiver and Asia Butler; six great grandchildren; a sister-in-law, Dora B. Seagar; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

She was predeceased by a grandson, Antwan Green.
