“FATHER”

*If our father was here today, we know that he would say,
“Don’t cry for me, I’ve been set free.”
I’ve had my ups and downs
And smiled through many a frown.*

*I’ve stood many a test, while trying to do my best.
I never did complain, nor did I try to explain.
Regardless of the pain, I managed to sustain.
So put a smile in your heart and begin to sing
As you help look after all of my offspring,*

*For they will need much care
And all the time you can spare.
And when it’s me they miss, give them a hug and a kiss.
Remind them I loved them so.
And from them I did not want to go.*

*Help them hold not to sorrow,
But prepare them for a better tomorrow.
And to my family, friends and all,,
I’ll see you when you’ve had your call*

THE FAMILY EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

We the family of Mr. Johnny “June Bug” Maxwell, wish to express our grateful appreciation for all acts of kindness that have been shown to us during our time of bereavement. We would like to give a special thanks to the staff of Palmetto Health Richland Memorial Hospital, The staff of Pruitt Health, Dr. Baldwin and his entire team at South Carolina Oncology Associates. Your prayers, calls, floral tributes, and other gestures have made this time easier to bear. May God bless and keep each of you.

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

Mr. Johnny Maxwell was the beloved son of the late Ms. Helen Maxwell and John C. Milhouse Sr. Johnny was born October 10, 1952 in Columbia, South Carolina. He departed this life on Saturday, March 03, 2018 at Palmetto Health Richland Memorial Hospital.

“June Bug”, as family and friends affectionately called him, was educated in the public schools of Richland County. Johnny was a dedicated employee of American Specialties for over 30 years.

Johnny was a loving father, grandfather, brother, son, uncle, and friend.

“June Bug” loved all sports, but he was best known for his love of baseball and basketball. “June Bug” was a die-hard Pittsburgh Steelers Fan.

Johnny was preceded in death by his loving mother, Ms. Helen Maxwell; father, Mr. John C. Milhouse Sr.; son; Mr. Ricardo Rickard; brothers, Mr. Melvin Maxwell, Mr. Stanley Maxwell, Mr. Ralston Maxwell, and Mr. Robert Maxwell; sister, Ms. Bernice Maxwell; aunt, Mrs. Mary Holman; uncles, Mr. Frank Maxwell, Mr. Raymond Lee Maxwell, Mr. Louis Maxwell, and Mr. Irvin Maxwell; nephews, Mr. Melvin F. Maxwell and Master Kyree Myers.

Those who will forever cherish fond and precious memories of Johnny “June Bug” Maxwell are his four loving children: daughter, Lisa (Willie) Lewis – Stewart; sons, Rasheed Lewis, Akeem Lewis (Danielle), and Brandyn Weston (Tanya), all of Columbia, S.C.; a loving, caring, and devoted sister, Ms. Diane (Stephon) Maxwell; three loving brothers, Mr. Miker Maxwell, Mr. Jeremiah Maxwell Sr., and Mr. John C. (Tracy) Milhouse Jr., all of Columbia, S.C.; four loving grandchildren: Ms. Shanikue Lewis, Mr. Akeem Lewis Jr., Mr. Daylen Weston, and Mr. Aaron Weston, all of Columbia S.C.; two loving aunts, Mrs. Dorothy Jean Maxwell of Columbia, S.C. and Ms. Edna Milhouse of North S.C. ; two loving brothers-in-law, Mr. Carlisle Johnson and Mr. Louis Gainey of Columbia, S.C.; a very special niece, Ms. Kikilia (Sinclair) Lewis of Columbia, S.C.; a good friend, Mr. Anthony Glover of Columbia, S.C.; two bonus sisters Mrs. Mary House and Ms. Kim Taylor of Columbia, S.C., and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other loving family and friends, all of whom share the grief caused by his departure but rejoice that he is resting with the Lord.

*God Looked Around His Garden
And Found an Empty Place,
He Then Looked Down Upon the Earth
And Saw Your Tired Face.
He Put His Arms Around You
And Lifted You to Rest.
God’s Garden Must Be Beautiful
He Always Takes the Best.
He Knew That You Were Suffering
He Knew You Were in Pain.
He Knew That You Would Never
Get Well on Earth Again.
He Saw the Road Was Getting Rough
And the Hills Were Hard to Climb.
So He Closed Your Weary Eyelids
And Whispered, ‘Peace Bethine’.
It Broke Our Hearts to Lose You
But You Didn’t Go Alone,
For Part of Us Went with You
The Day God Called You Home*

GRANDAD

*It’s difficult to express in words,
Just what we would like to say.
Please know you’re thought of often,
And in a very special way.
And though the distance in between us,
May keep us miles apart,
There’ll always be a special place
For you within our hearts!!!
We Love You Granddaddy “June Bug”
Love always your loving Grandkids
Shanikue, Akeem Jr., Daylen, & Aaron*

OUR UNCLE

*Of all the many blessings
However great or small
To have had you for an uncle
Was the greatest one of all.
Love Always Nieces and Nephews*
