FATHER

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories build a lane;
We would walk right up to heaven,
And bring you home again.*

*So many times we needed you,
So many times we cried;
If loce could have saved you,
Father of ours, you never would have died.*

Oh Daddy, we are going to miss you!

THE FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of the late Mr. Maurice W. Garrison Sr. would like you to know that words are inadequate to express the compassion and gratefulness they have felt towards their family and friends who have prayed, comforted and consoled them with the overwhelming outpouring of Christian love and kindness during their time of sorrow. They thank you sincerely and may God bless each of you in a very special way.

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death...neither shall there be any more pain.

Mr. Maurice W. Garrison, Sr., 82, was born April 13, 1935 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was born to the late Edward and Elizabeth Garrison-Lundy. He entered into his eternal resting place on Saturday, March 10, 2018 in Columbia, South Carolina.

Maurice, "Pudney" as he was affectionately called by family and friends, attended the public schools of the city of Philadelphia. He was employed at Sears and Roebuck and retired after twenty-five years of service.

He was a former member and trustee at Sweet Home Baptist Church and later attended Apostolic Doctrine Evangelistic Church of Hopkins, South Carolina. Maurice was a loving and devoted son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Alena Mae Francis Garrison and only brother, Keith Lundy.

Those left to share the joys of his life are his loving and devoted daughter, Judy (Melvin) Scott; sons, Maurice Garrison, Jr. and David Jacobs, both of Columbia, SC; daughter, Teri Combs and son, Troy Combs, both of Philadelphia, PA; grandchildren of the home, Carl Felder, Jr. and Stephanie Garrison-Gunter, thirty-nine grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and a host of nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Mama & Daddy,
We are going to forever miss y'all.
-Your Loving Children & Grandchildren
