REVELATIONS 21:4

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

THE FAMILY EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE
 We, the family of the late Paul Outen Jr. would like to thank everyone for their calls, text messages, and all of the love everyone has given. We would especially like to thank everyone from Central Columbia Kidney Center for helping Paul throughout his journey. And last but not least, a very special thank you to Ms. Vanessa Hayward, his caregiver.

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

II Corinthians 4:17-18

Mr. Paul
OUTEN Jr.

Paul Outen Jr. was born February 16, 1964 in Columbia, South Carolina to Doris Outen and the late Paul Outen Sr. God called him home August 12, 2018 in the comfort of his home.

Paul attended Richland County Public School. He graduated from A.C. Flora High School in 1982.

He pursued a work career at Rea Contracting and C.R. Jackson as a heavy equipment operator providing 30 years of service collectively.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his mother, Doris J. Outen of Columbia; daughter, Erika S. Austin-Outen of Columbia; son Terrell (Benita) Golson of Sumter; brothers, Calvin (Donna) Outen, Tyrone (Bernell) Outen, and Christopher (Yamica) Outen; sisters, Linda Lewis, and Lois Jackson, all of Columbia, SC; seven grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and other relatives and very good friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play,
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.
