

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

THE FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

In the name of Jesus Christ, the family of Miss Gloria Williamson thanks everyone for all you've done, did, and will continue to do for us. We will always thank GOD for you, our family. We also thank the Palmetto Health Hospice staff for the loving care and support they shown in the caring of our mother, sister, grandmother and friend. May God forever bless and keep you in HIS care.

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

“For we walk by faith, not by sight: We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.”

II Corinthians 5:7-8

Miss Gloria Williamson better known as “GG”; was born on October 14, 1957 in Blackville South Carolina to Annie Laura Joyner-Williamson and James Williamson which preceded her in death. She departed this earthly life on January 12, 2019 at PRISMA Health Richland (formerly known as Palmetto Richland) in Columbia, South Carolina.

Gloria attended and graduated for Spring Valley High; Columbia, South Carolina in 1976. She was employed by several restaurants in Columbia before her health declined. She was a resident of Allen Benedict Court for a number of years.

Those left to cherish Miss Gloria Williamson are her son LaForest Williamson of Columbia, South Carolina; a daughter and son-in-law, Joi and Reginald Tyler of Columbia, South Carolina; granddaughter, Kayla Harper of Columbia, South Carolina and other grandchildren; one sister, Sylvia Williamson of Columbia, South Carolina; one brother, Teddy Rogers of Barnwell, South Carolina; two aunts, Josephine “Berta” Green of Columbia, South Carolina and Mary Williamson of Brooklyn, New York; five uncles, Jasper Joyner of Columbia, South Carolina, Franklyn Williamson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Jacob Williamson and Earle Williamson of Barnwell, South Carolina, Martin Williamson of Manhattan, New York; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned by back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play,
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undo grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.*
