I've Done My Work

*I've done my work, I've sung my song,
I've done some good, I've done some wrong,
And I shall go where I belong;
The Lord has willed it so.
He knows my heart and every thought,
He knows what pain and joy I've brought;
And by His love I shall be taught
The way to Him I know.*

*He knows my soul so weak and blind,
So full of fears of mortal mind,
And He will lead, and I shall find
The way to Him, I know.
He guides my steps, and He knows best,
He will not harm where He is blest.
And so goodnight, I'll take my rest,
Where sweet wild roses grow.*

FIELDS

Mrs. Frances Carpenter Fields

Frances Carpenter Fields went to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday, June 16, 2019. Affectionately known as “Fran,” she was born August 15, 1931 in Gaffney, South Carolina. Fran was the youngest daughter of the late John and Teacora Carpenter.

After graduating from Granard High School, Fran completed her Bachelor of Arts degree at Barber-Scotia College, in Concord, North Carolina and earned her Master of Arts degree from the University of South Carolina. She served as a teacher in Richland County School District One for 33 years. During her tenure teaching, she earned several citations, awards and recognitions. She was professionally affiliated with The National Education Association of South Carolina, South Carolina Education Association, Richland County Education Association, and the Retired Teachers Association.

As a devoted and active member of Zion Baptist Church, Fran served as president of the Missionary Society, was a member of The Faithful Workers’ Circle, the Waverly Wide Awake Club, the Enrichment Committee, and she served as a teacher for Vacation Bible School.

Fran served as a board member of Church Women United, and served as the association’s Ecumenical Development Coordinator. She also was a member in the Women’s Educational and Missionary Convention of South Carolina and the Gethsemane Women’s Auxiliary where she served as President and also served on the education committee.

She was a member of Gamma Nu Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., where she served on the housing board of directors and several other committees.

Fran was also a member of the Cosmopolitan Club and worked frequently in the community on fundraising drives for the March of Dimes, the Heart Fund, and the American Cancer Society. Fran loved traveling, helping others, and decorating.

In addition to her parents, Fran is predeceased by her husband, Lieutenant Colonel Richard L. Fields and her daughter Angela Luck Holloway.

She is survived by her daughter, Danyelle Luck Young, five grandchildren, Quincy Alford, Alicia Holloway Smith, Joshua Luck, Matthew Young and Meghan Young; nine great-grandchildren; brother, Dr. Carl A. Carpenter; longtime companion James Bassard; and, a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Change of Address

I wanted to let everyone know that I have moved. I was called on and then received by my Father. To my precious loved ones, I planned to be here a lot longer, but God informed me that my new house was ready, I could move in immediately now that my new home is finished, and it is a beautiful sight to behold. It’s located in an exclusive area just off Serene Celestial Shore and behind a beautiful pearly white gate. The streets are paved with gold and every day is a Sabbath Day. There is so much Peace, Love, Joy and Happiness here. There’s no more pain to bear, no struggles, strife or discontent. Now we all know that I can go on about my new home, but I have to get fitted for my new Wings!

*My new address is:
1234 Hallelujah Way,
God’s Kingdom, Heaven*

*Love always,
Frances Carpenter Fields*

P.S. I don’t have a phone number yet, just call on God and ask for me.
