For My Daughter

Khadijah my D-Jah you will be missed. The peace you didn't find here, I pray you find it in Gods arms. I will keep you in my prays and heart until we meet again.

*I Love You,
Your Loving Mom*

THE FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We the family of Khadijah T. Gaymon wish to thank each of you for the many acts of kindness expressed to us during this difficult time. It is impossible to thank everyone individually, so please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our deepest gratitude. Khadijah will forever be in our hearts.

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

Khadijah

Khadijah Tempest Gaymon, 24, of Columbia, South Carolina, entered into eternal rest on May 29, 2020. She was born on May 16, 1996 in New York City, New York.

Khadijah graduated from Ridgeview High School in 2014, and continued her education at Lander University in Greenwood, SC. Khadijah earned a Phlebotomy Certification in 2019. Khadijah loved to read and spend time with her nieces and nephews. Among other hobbies, she particularly loved photography.

She is survived by her loving, devoted mother Nancy Gaymon. Three sisters; Angela Johnson, Shera Housey (Marcus), Shandell Banks; also including two brothers; Allen Johnson and her devoted brother Robert Gaymon.

Khadijah leaves behind a host of loving cousins, her precious nephews and nieces she was extremely proud of, aunts, and uncles who will miss her dearly.

She Is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,

or you can open them, and see all that she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,

or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live in yesterday,

or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back or you can do what she'd want:

smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
