*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid for see.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned by back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play,
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undo grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.*

THE FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We, the family of the late Roosevelt Stark, wishes to thank each of you for your many acts of kindness and expression of love during this time of sorrow. We appreciate all of you and may God bless you. Please keep us in your prayers.

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

Mr. Roosevelt Stark was born in Jenkinsville (Fairfield County) on November 17, 1935, to the late Sam Starks and Maggie Lee Hollis-Thompson. He departed his life on earth on Thursday, July 23, 2020.

He was a faithful member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church of Jenkinsville, SC, and was known to make you laugh with his great sense of humor and personality.

Love ones who preceded him in death in homegoing were his wife, Rachel Stark; mother, Maggie Lee Hollis-Thompson, and father, Sam Stark; daughter, Betty Ann Cleveland; son, Roosevelt Starks Jr.; brothers and sisters, Clarence Cook, Sam Stark Jr., David Starks, William Starks, Jimmie Lee Geiger, and Willie Mae Hart.

He leaves behind one daughter Barbara Boyd; three grandchildren: Thaddess Starks (Kimesha), Reginald Tolliver, and Lakesha Tolliver; three great-grandchildren: Covae Amari Hopkins, Tyler Starks, and Madison Goodwin; one sister; Catherine Starks, two sisters-in-law; Rebecca Goodwin and Lorene Starks and three brothers-in-law; James Hart and James (Bert) Goins and Frank Goins, including a host of nieces, nephews, close friends and family who all loved him dearly.

Your jokes were the highlight of our lives,

Oh yes you were quite witty and your laughter

Was deep and hearty.

You left us here not knowing how to fill the Void but we understand you had to go be with God.

There comes a time when we must depart.

Now that you are among angels

you can make a new start.

Because there's no better place to be than with God.

Our smiles will appear to be less bright

but our thoughts of you will forever shine, whenever

there's laughter you will come to mind.

Love, Your Family
