I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play,
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.*

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

Our beloved sister Karen Ann Asmond was born April 12, 1960 in El Paso, Texas. She was one of seven children born to Herbert and Leola Green Moody. She Departed this life on August 1, 2020.

Karen was affectionately known as “Beanie”. She loved all her nieces and nephews and would do anything for them. She was a beloved sister, auntie and friend.

She was educated in the public schools of Richland County. After school, Karen entered the workforce where she was a faithful employee of the Department of Mental Health. This is also where she met Dicki Asmond, to whom she would wed in Holy Matrimony.

Karen was proceeded in death by her parents, Herbert and Leola Moody, and her husband Dicki Asmond.

Karen leaves to mourn her passing; a loving and devoted friend, Benjamin Brown; her siblings, Harvey (Dorthy) Green, Sandra (James) Foreman, Debra English, Herbert (Martha) Mood II, Terry Moody and Gregory (Deon) Moody; her best friends, Alberta Jeffcoat and Elnora Williams and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

You Never Said Goodbye

You never said I'm leaving

You never said goodbye.

You were gone before I knew it,

And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you,

A million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,

In death I love you still.

In my heart you hold a place,

That no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,

But you didn't go alone

For part of me went with you,

The day God took you home.
