REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

*I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.
Psalm 37:25*

Glinder Delores Goines, affectionately known as “Lois” to all who love her, was born on July 23, 1944 in Columbia, South Carolina to David “DW” Goines, Sr. and Sarah Gadsden Goines. Lois completed her earthly assignment and God called her home to receive her heavenly wings on November 22, 2020.

Lois was educated in the Richland County public school system. She graduated from C.A Johnson High School, class of 1962. Lois was employed with State Park Health Center and South Carolina Department of Mental Health. She retired after thirty years of committed service.

Lois was a selfless woman, who gave her whole life to her family. After the untimely death of her parents, Lois kept her promise to her mother and took on the role of sole provider to her younger siblings. This act of obedience, love and faith earned Lois the well-deserved title of Goines Family Matriarch.

As a devout Christian, Lois was an active member of Bethlehem Baptist Church in College Place for over seventy years. Her favorite bible verse was Psalm 37:25. As a model citizen, Lois was respectfully known as a pillar of the College Place, Fairwold Acres, and Harlem Heights communities.

Lois was preceded in death by her daughter, Tanya, her siblings, Virginia Walker, Larry Goines, Phillip Goines, Diane Cornelius, and David Goines, Jr.

Those left to celebrate Lois’ life are: her daughter Tyra (Tiger), Grandchildren, Sade’, Charese, Dajanya, and Demetrius, Great Grandchildren Jeremiah, Nicholas, Elijah and Kaiden, sisters, Carolyn Seaton, Linda Wood, and Alice Goines, many loving cousins, a host of other relatives and very close friends, all who will mourn her earthly death, but will forever rejoice that she is resting with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

understand, that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand, and said my place was ready in heaven far above, and that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away, the tears began to fall from my eyes; for all my life, I'd always thought I didn't want to die. I had so much to live for and so much left to do; it seemed almost impossible to believe that I had to leave you.

I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad. I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had. If I could relive yesterday, just for a while, I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe I could see you smile.

But then I realized that this could never be, for your memories would have to take the place of me. When I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow, I thought of you and my heart began to fill with sorrow. But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home, when God look down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne.

He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you. Today your life on earth is past, but here, life starts anew. I promise no tomorrows; but today will always last, and since each day is the same day, there's no longing for the past. You have been so faithful, so trusting and so true. Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do. But you have been forgiven, and now at last you're free. So, won't you take my hand and share eternity with me?"

So, when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, just know I'm right here in your heart.

*Love Always and Forever
Momma, Grandma, GG*

To my children,

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see; If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to do or say.

I know how much you love me, just as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too. But when tomorrow start without me, please try to
