WHEN I'M GONE

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.*

*Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun*

*Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day*

*Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay*

*And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.*

Apostle Ollie Mack

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

Apostle Ollie Mack was born on September 16, 1962 in Salley, SC. He was the only child of Pastor Mary Mack Horton. He departed this earthly life from all sickness on Saturday, November 28, 2020. Apostle Mack grew up in New Rochelle, NY and later moved to Columbia, SC.

Apostle Prophet Mack was educated in the public schools of Richland County, and attended C.A. Johnson High School. In 2001 he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Theology and a certificate in counseling from Overcoming Outreach School of Religion Pentecostal Church Inc. in Columbia, SC.

Apostle Mack was employed in several occupations. He was a golf caddy in New York, he also did landscape along with heating and air. After many years of working he became disabled in 2018.

Most of all he loved working in the vineyard for the Lord. He was better known as Prophet Mack. He accepted the Lord at an early age and was filled with the holy spirit in 1992. Prophet Mack loved the Lord and worked faithfully to win lost souls at all cost. He was a great servant to all mankind until his death. God used him to carry out many miracles in his ministry as well as instructing him to bless people by giving them anointed prayer handkerchiefs. He ministered from coast to coast in the United States, taking the gospel to the hedges and byways. He had a passion for doing gospel rap to reach the youth.

Apostle Prophet Ollie Mack leaves to cherish his precious memories, his mother, Pastor Mary Mack Horton of Columbia, SC; his father, Ollie Mack; his children, Sylvester Baker of Columbia, SC, Josiah E. Thorborne of Atlanta, Ga, Nicole Chisolm of New Jersey and Tyasia Thompson; one granddaughter, Serenity Thompson of Columbia, SC; sister, Katherine Mack of Salley, SC; aunt, Clary Ann Milhouse Tucker; uncle, Christian Milhouse; fiancé, Elder Lula Edmonds; special cousin whom was like his sister, Evangelist Laydean Milhouse Hayes and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
