With Love Dad

I said a prayer for you today and know God must have heard. I felt the answer in my heart, although He spoke no word. I didn't ask for wealth or fame, I knew you wouldn't mind, I asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind, I asked that He'd be near you at the start of each new day, to grant you health and blessings and friends to share your way. I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small, but it was for His loving care I prayed the most of all.

With Love Mom

You Never Said Goodbye

You never said I'm leaving, you never said goodbye. You were gone before I knew it and only God knew why. A million times I needed you, a million times I cried. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place that no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone for a part of me went with you the day God took you home.

TAYLOR NADINE JORDAN

Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book, they all were written, the days fashioned for me, when yet there were none of them.
Psalm 139: 16

Miss Taylor Nadine Jordan was born January 12, 1995 to Mr. Roy B. and Mrs. Duuna Arlean Argo Jordan. She was the youngest of two daughters to this union.

Taylor's educational journey began at St. John Pre-school in Columbia, South Carolina. She then moved to Kingsport, Tennessee, where she attended George Washington Elementary and John Sevier Middle school, and was a 2013 graduate from Dobyns-Bennett High School, where she was a member of the Ebony Club and a member of JROTC. She attended North East State Community College. Kingsport, Tenn.

She was introduced to God as a toddler, attending Sunday School at Antioch AME Zion church, Eastover, South Carolina, as well as Shiloh Baptist Church and Central Baptist Church in Kingsport, Tennessee. She was a member of Girl's Inc. of Kingsport. She had a spirit of an entrepreneur. She loved baking and selling cupcakes and cake pops with her sister, Tiara. As fast as Tiara could make the batter, bake, cool and decorate them, she could sell them twice as fast. Her greatest interest was being able to help others with their internet service, etc. She could do wonders with aching feet, as she had many interests.

Taylor leaves fond memories and a heartfelt legacy to her parents Roy B. (Duuna Arlean), her sister Tiara Chaunte' Jordan, Kingsport, Tennessee, her brothers, Arise Jordan, Alexandria, Virginia, and Roy Xavier Jordan, Beaufort, South Carolina, also her maternal grandfather, Mr. Rommie Argo (Cheryl), Kingsport. Tennessee, four uncles: Mr. Wilbert J. (Katherine) Jordan, Eastover, South Carolina; Mr. Luther A. (Rev. Wilma) Jordan; Mr. Arndra Argo. Atlanta, Georgia and Mr. Christopher Argo of West Columbia, South Carolina, and one Great Uncle, Mr. Sherman Matthews of West Columbia, South Carolina; one aunt, Rev. Cynthia J. Perry, Eastover, South Carolina, two Great Aunts, Mrs. Gloria Matthews Muller and Mrs. Bessie Ruth (Nathan) Gardner all of West Columbia, South Carolina, and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends who will sorely miss her earthly presence.
