Superman

*It breaks our heart to lose you
We hate to see you go
But now you're with the Lord and your wife Big Joe
The most wonderful father, grandfather, brother and friend
You always taught us to stick together until the end
What a blessing to see 85 years
Somehow, I thought you'd never leave
But even though you're gone, you'll always be with me
You always had a joke and said whatever was on your mind
And hated if we made you late, you had to be on time
Always sharp at everything, he just had to be the best
And no matter where he went, he came dressed to impress
The king of our throne and the perfect example of a man
Always one call away and helped in any way that he can
Your time was up on earth and your mission is complete
You raised 5 beautiful daughters
Who will carry on your legacy?
Everything you instilled in us; I know understand
God needed you home, so he came and took your hand
We can no longer be sad because it's all a part of the plan
Thank you for everything, our personal superman
Sleep in PEACE, We Love You!*

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

*Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful saints
Psalm 116:15*

Mr. Robert Lee Williams, was born on November 26, 1935 in Eastover, SC. He was the son of the late James Williams and Beatrice (Bailey) Williams. He departed this life to be with the Lord on Thursday, February 11, 2021 at Providence Hospital in Columbia, SC.

Robert affectionately known as “Butch” or “Pops” by his family and friends attended public schools of Eastover, SC. On January 23, 1961 he was united in Holy Matrimony to Josephine Jackson. This union was blessed with the birth of five beautiful daughters. Mr. Williams was a man of many talents and skills. He was employed for many years with the Walter Hunter Construction Company where he retired at the age of 70 in 2006.

Mr. Williams was a member of Greater St. Luke Baptist Church in Columbia, SC, where he was a member of the Men’s Choir. He enjoyed fixing things, doing yardwork, playing the lottery, going to church and getting dressed up for church.

Robert was a loving, husband, gather, grandfather, great-grandfather, uncle and friend. Though his physical presence will be with us no more, his spirit and memories of him will live on in the hearts and lives of all those who loved and knew him.

Mr. Williams is preceded in death by his wife, Josephine Williams; his mother, Beatrice (Bailey) Williams and his father, James Williams.

Those left to cherish Roberts fond and precious memories are his daughters, Elaine Williams, Delores (Eddie) Natt, Robersina (Albert) Knight, Natalie (Robert) and Yolundia Williams all of Columbia, SC; nine grandchildren, Jennifer Taylor, Chicago, Illinois, Ronethia, Robert (Cory), Tameika (Cookie), Tanisha, Trevon, Eulella Davis, Sara McCauley and Velma all of Columbia, SC; great-grandchildren, Shakira Williams and Savion Clark whom lived with him and five others all of Columbia ,SC; two special daughters, Gloria (Ann) Q. Raspberry of Orlando, FL and Denise Carter of Spartanburg, SC; two special nieces, Elizabeth Wine and Debora Collins both of Columbia, SC; best friend, Marion Green of Columbia, SC; close family friend, Elise Friday of Columbia, SC; special friend, Tressie Hopkins of Columbia, SC; close neighbor, Michael Rankin of Columbia, SC and a host of nephews, nieces, other loving relatives and friends all of whom will miss him dearly.

IN THE GARDEN

I come to the garden alone while the dew is still on the roses,

And the voice I hear falling on my ear,

The Son of God discloses

And He walks with me and He talks with me,

And He tells me I am his own;

And the joy we share as we tarry there,

None other has ever known

2.He speaks, and the sound of his voice is so sweet

The birds hush their singing,

And the melody that He give to me

Within my heart is to ringing.

And He walks with me and He talks with me,

And He tells me I am his own;

And the joy we share as we tarry there,

None other has ever known

I stay in the garden with Him,

Though the night around me is falling.

But He bids me go; through the voice of woe

His voice to me is calling.

And He walk with me and He talks with me,

And He tells me I am His own;

And the joy we share as we tarry there,

None other has ever known.
