Dear Nana

Looking back on you, I always see me, you and ma talking in your room smiling and laughing, you were always there and I thank you for that. I'll miss everything about you and wouldn't trade you for the world. I know you wouldn't want me or ma to cry so much. I miss how we used to go to church to cook, sing and serve people. I will always feel like you're here even though you're with your parents. I'm happy that you're not in the hospital no more because I knew you hated it there. But I'm glad to know you're ok and not hurting and doing good. I love you and will remember all the lessons you've taught me. Also, I'll always remember to water my flowers like you yelled at me for.

Love, Forever and always
Your second child, Nevaeh
