If it's not fun, don't do it...
Life's too short ~ Marlene

OBITUARY

Marlene was a woman who brought sparkle and joy to the lives of everyone she met. Whenever she entered a room, it was as if she brought a party with her. You didn't actually have to be in the room with her to experience the party – even her phone call could lift one's spirits. Marlene grew up in Pittsburgh, PA and was a long-standing member of the Berkeley Hills Lutheran Church. Her work with Meals on Wheels lead her to employment opportunities in Washington D.C. After helping introduce then Governor Regan to union leaders in Pittsburgh during the 1980 presidential campaign; Marlene was offered a position with the Secretary of Education after the election. Just a few years later, Marlene was selected to be Peace Corps Country Director in the Seychelles Islands off the coast of Africa. While in the Seychelles she met and married Andy Anderson. Their shared love of boats eventually led them to a life in the coastal town of Beaufort, NC.

Marlene had a great impact on Carteret County, Beaufort and many organizations here. She was a proud member of the Beaufort Historical Association, The Beaufort Woman's Club, The Bodacious Belles of Beaufort, The Sweet Potato Queens, and Beaufort Wine and Food to name a few. Mike Wagoner, past president of the Carteret County Chamber of Commerce, wrote: "Her life motto was: "If it's not fun, don't do it...Life's too short". In every endeavor, she was all in and all the way. Marlene inspired and motivated everyone who came in contact with her. She made us better people and made Carteret County a better place. She was one-of-a-kind and we're already missing the sound of her laughter. In many ways, Marlene was the Grande Dame of Beaufort, sans any airs of nobility."

Marlene is survived by her two sons, Douglas Beck and his companion Deborah Brink; Tim Beck and his wife Cindy; granddaughter, Rachel Hope Moss Beck; sister, Michelle Moss and her companion Gordon Turpe; and her beloved dog, Pepper.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Herman and Henrietta Moss; husband, Andy Anderson; and dear friends, Sally Oates; and Mary Lou Tieman.

Remember

When you remember me, it means you have carried something of who I am with you, that I have left some mark of who I am on who you are.
It means that you can summon me back to your mind
even though countless years and miles stand between us...
it means that even after I die,
You can still see my face and hear my voice
And speak to me in your heart.
For as long as you remember me,
I am never entirely lost.
