For Daddy

Every time we talked,
I heard a smile in your voice.
I know I can't bring you back,
There's nothing to fill that void.
Although, you've gotten your wings,
And you're gone to Heaven now,
You met God at the gate.
And finally got your Crown.
I'll grow stronger each day,
And stronger with each tear.
With you watching over me,
I have nothing to fear.
So, take your rest dad,
Sit down, and take your place.

Obituary

A Time for Everything

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
