Obituary for Elliot Rice, Jr.

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.”

Psalm 23 KJV

Elliot Rice, Jr. was born in the Fork Community of Townville, S.C. on February 17, 1935 to the late Elliott and Canary Rice. He was the ninth of nine brothers and sisters. Those deceased include Jessie Mae Brown, Drusilla Brown, Elizabeth Cobb, Franklin Rice, Birdie Anding, Theodore Rice, and Quincy Rice (nephew). He passed away on Wednesday, November 16, 2022 in Charlotte, NC.

Elliott Jr. grew up in the Townville Community and attended Mt. Pleasant Elementary School. He later enrolled at Reed Street High School and graduated from Anderson County Training School. After graduation, he relocated to Washington, D.C. and enrolled at Howard University where he received a Master's of Education Degree in Chemistry. After graduation, he enlisted in the Air Force and spent four years in Germany. He then returned to Washington and continued his career in the Army/Navy as an Electrical Engineer. He retired from this position after 37 years of service. After retirement, Elliott met and married his sweetheart, Lola in 1970. They later relocated to Charlotte, N.C., where they shared many beautiful years of marriage until Lola's death in 2017.

Elliot received numerous awards and recognitions for his outstanding work as a navy oceanographer. He was always known for his exceptional ability in academics and special talents. He was also admired for his community/relationships and his devotion and support of his family. He was loved and respected by everyone he met.

Elliot is survived by his loving sister, Dr. Beatrice R. Thompson of Anderson, S.C., her two sons, Stephen Patrick Thompson and his wife, Michelle of Dacula, Georgia and Darryl Alexander Thompson of Anderson, S.C., a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
