A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

"Grieve not for me.

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.

The good life I lived, while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes, we're together again."

Obituary

Mitchell Cannel Irby was born in Anderson, South Carolina on October 21, 1977 to Robbie Mae Irby and Bobby Lewis. He departed this life on Friday, March 29, 2024.

Mitch, as he was called by his family and friends was a very quiet and mild-mannered guy. He attended McDuffie High School and was raised on Southside on Hampton Street. You could always find him sitting on the porch at the blue house with a ballcap on or his favorite color red.

Mitch loved his kids and his family. His presence will be dearly missed by his children, Kenterrious Tyrel Perry, Emmry Smith, Robbie Irby and Skylar Irby; two siblings, Londas Maurice Irby and Latoyya Monieke Irby (Cory Hull); father, Bobby Lewis; and a host of relatives and close friends.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Robbie Mae Irby; son, Zavion Irby; grandmother, Irene Irby and his grandfathers, Robert Earl Irby and Thomas Calhoun "T.C." Dawson, Jr.
