

“Mama Don’t Go Away”

*Mama don’t go without me,
It is plain to see, that I love you so much,
Thinking about you everyday
Wishing you were here one more day.*

*Mama don’t go away
I know how much you suffered
God has been on your side
Now he wants you to come home
To his side called Heaven.*

*Mama don’t go away
I need you so bad
God told us not to be sad,
Life is too short, no time to wait,
So dry your tears and rejoice,
It’s not too late.*

*God took you home in heaven,
I know you’re in a better place.
No more worries, pain or sickness
God has gained another Angel.
You’ve gained your wings, Mom, fly high*

*Love your Daughter,
Hope Footman*

Obituary

June 18, 1942 August 8, 2016

Mrs. Vivian Alestine Collins, was born in Fort Pierce Florida to the late Leroy and Gethsemane Holmes Footman. She departed this life on August 8, 2016 at Lindley Park Rehab and Health Center.

Vivian attended New York High School, graduation class of 1960, and later attended Greenville Technical College, where she received her CNA degree. She worked as a Caregiver until her health declined.

Vivian was married twice and leaves a tribe of her five children, Troy Footman of Cranston, RI, Leslie Footman of New York City, NY, Lamar Booth of Dorchester, Mass, LaChrista Hope Footman of Anderson, SC and adopted daughter, Delsie Petering of Dorchester, Mass; five grandchildren, Rodney Footman of the home, DeAndre Footman, Corey Bokin, Troy Bokin, and Ajia Woods; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Vivian was preceded in death by her parents, Leroy and Gethsemane Holmes Footman and one brother, Bernard Footman.
