

The Best

God saw that you were getting tired,

And a cure was not to be;

So He picked you up in His arms

And whispered, "Come with Me".

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer

And watched you fade away;

Although we loved you dearly,

We couldn't make you stay.

A heart of gold stopped beating,

Your tired eyes laid to rest;

God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes the best.

Acknowledgments

We would like to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation for your thoughts, prayers, words of encouragement, visits, calls, cards and other acts of kindness during our time of sorrow and bereavement. You have uplifted our spirits and our hearts as we bid a farewell to a woman who truly "loved people and love the Lord." May God continue to pour out His blessings upon each of you. A special thanks to Crossroad C.M.E. Church family, Gentiva Hospice, caregivers: Teresa Roebuck and Patricia Flanning, family and friends. We saw all of these as God's love expressed through you. May you continue to be blessed in all of the days that are yet to come.

Obituary

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.*

Mrs. Georgia Bell Hunter Oglesby, 92, of 1121 Cemetery Road in Iva, SC, passed away on Sunday, August 21, 2016 at her home.

Georgia was a member of Cross Road C.M.E Church in Iva, SC where she held many activity roles in the church, in the Missionary Society and Stewardess Board.

George enjoyed sewing, Do-Re-Mi singing and collecting dolls.

She is survived by two daughters, Helen Hunter of Iva, SC and Teresa Leatrice Toney of Hartsville, SC; one brother, Jack C. Hunter; fifteen grandchildren; twenty-three great grandchildren; eight great-great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William Henry Oglesby; parents, Andy and Elizabeth Brown Hunter; and three sons, William Odell Oglesby, James Oglesby and Clinton Oglesby.

*God, grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change,
The courage to change the things I can,
And the wisdom to know the difference.*
