Obituary

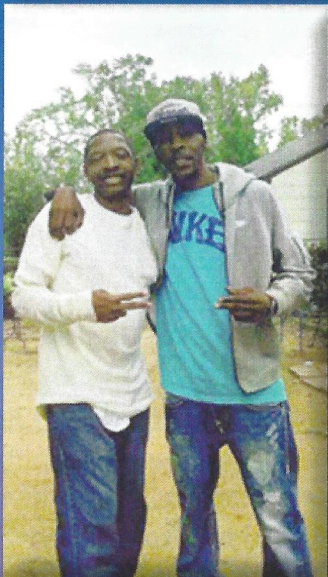

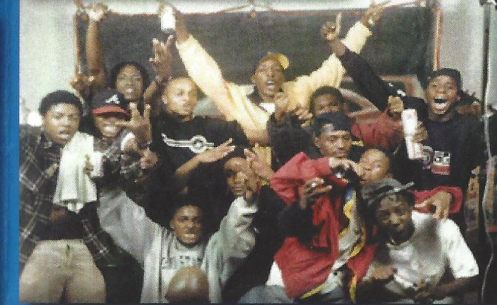

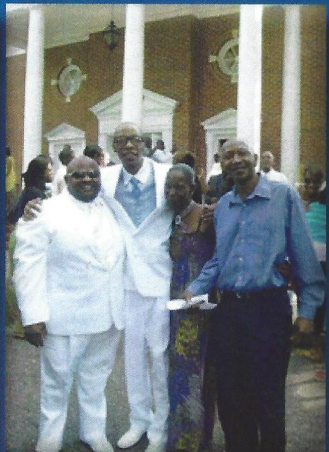

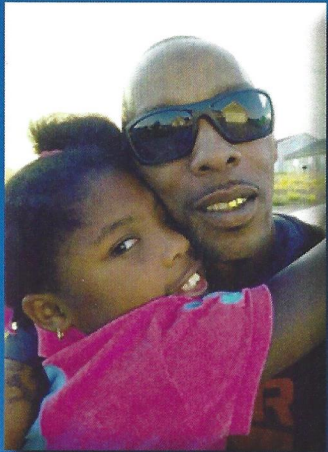

Mr. Walter Larenzo Lee was born April 19, 1976 in Anderson, South Carolina to Bettye Walton Lee Dennis. He departed this earthly life on Friday, November 18, 2016. “Reno”, as he was affectionately known, attended the public schools of Anderson School District Five. He was an antique car enthusiast and enjoyed seeking business ventures. In recent years, Reno became the owner of R&T’s Automotive Detail Shop and Car Sales.

Reno was truly loved by many people for his smile, his generosity and his love for his family. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Anderson and Ethel Walton.

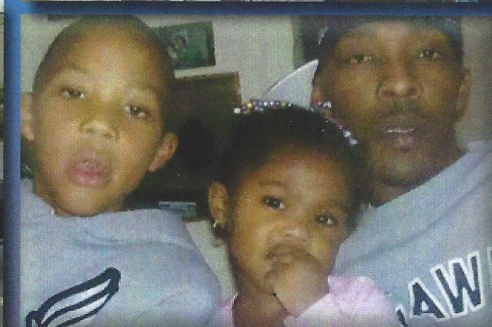

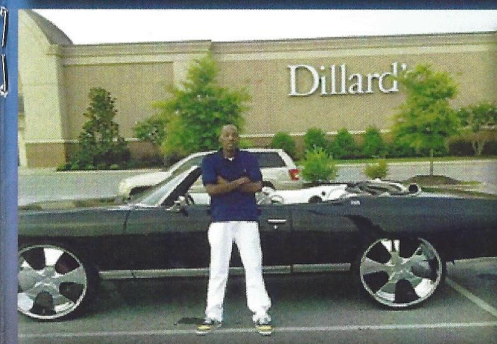

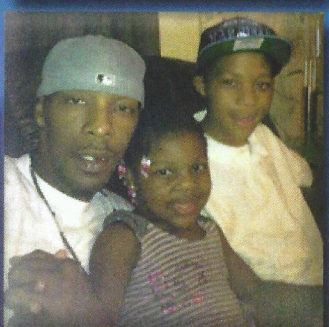

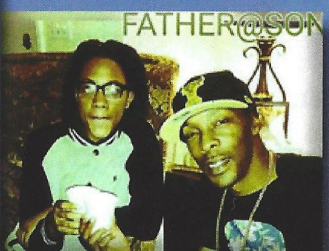

Mr. Walter Larenzo “Reno” Lee leaves to cherish his precious memory: two sons, Tiavion and Walter; his daughters, Kendall, Reniya, and Whatley, all of Anderson. He also leave to mourn his passing, his mother Bettye Dennis; two sisters, Melody Harris (Basil) of Irmo, SC and Monica Maranda Lee of Anderson; His brothers Anthony (Susan), Charles (Aliche), Derrick (Shalonda), Rodrick (Cassandra), all of Anderson. Reno also leaves to cherish his memory other siblings to include Melvin, Dianne and Carol, all of Lavonia, Georgia; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

FAMILY

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love
that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows
in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go.
