

Our mother, our protector, our sister, our heart,
God has called you to your heavenly home,
Even though it seems we're apart.
We are forever grateful and God is sovereign,
You taught us, you hugged us, you comforted us,
You laughed with us.
Your sweet serene spirit will continue to guide us,
Even when we feel like falling.
The season may change and time will go on,
But we take joy in your restoration,
Because Christ is on the throne!
O bless the Lord, oh my soul,
And all that is within us.
A healing has taken place,
All pain, sorrow, toil, strife has been erased.
We love you, we speak and declare peace,
Thank you God for unity.
Thank you God for restoration.
Momma enjoy your permanent heavenly vacation!

Obituary

Sunrise: July 12, 1964

Sunset: March 4, 2017

Kim Teresa Kirksey went to her eternal heavenly home on Saturday, March 4, 2017. She was born July 12, 1964 to the late Ernest “Bull” Fowler and Ada Gaines Fowler.

She touched a gross amount of hearts in the Anderson community. Though she will be undoubtedly missed, we rejoice because she is with God.

She leaves behind a host of loved ones; her husband, Roland Kirksey; a daughter, Tazzmiel Kirksey; a son, Braquiece Kirksey; four sisters, Vickie Fowler, Brenda Leslie (Clifford), Christi Isom (Anthony) and Miranda Walker; one brother, Bradley E. Fowler (Barbara); her cherished nieces and nephews, Tai Fowler, Patrice Fowler, Markesia Leslie, Anthony Isom, Jr., Jazman Isom, Olivia Fowler, and Niles Fowler.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ernest “Bull” Fowler and Ada Gaines Fowler.
