Acknowledgement

We, the family of the late Geraldine N. Callahan, with a deep sense of love and grattitude in our hearts, thank you for your love, concern and compassion you extended us during the transition of our loved one. The food, support and prayers have been a pivotal part in this bereavement process. We also extend a special thank you to Dr. Ankoma Anderson and the Welfare Baptist Church family; profound grattitude is given to Elaine James, Raedesha Jones, Burnette McCollough, Jaszmine Williams and Tiffany Mattress for the excellent care Geraldine received during her illness. May God bless each and everyone of you.

Honoring Geraldine's Life

Geraldine, 75, entered into eternal rest on January 4, 2018 at Hospice of the Upstate in Anderson, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Julian and Alberta Thompson Callahan.

Geraldine accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age; she joined the Christian fellowship at Welfare Baptist Church in Belton, South Carolina. She was an active member of Circle #2.

Geraldine was reared in Belton, South Carolina and graduated from Geer Gant High School. After graduation, she continued her education at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, North Carolina where she earned her Bachelor of Arts; majoring in French and Psychology. Geraldine taught in the public school systems of Hartwell and Sardis Georgia, as well as Chesterfield, South Carolina.

Geraldine's transistion leaves a void in the hearts of many; two sisters, Zetella Callahan of Belton, South Carolina and Marjorie Prioleau of Charleston, South Carolina; a brother, James Henry Callahan of Belton, South Carolina; a brother-in-law, Marion Massey of Suitland, Maryland; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other dear relatives and friends.

Geraldine was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Annie Jean Massey, Juanita McDonald and Ida Breckenridge; a brother, Julian Callahan, Jr. and brothers-in-law, Isaac McDonald and Thomas Breckenridge.

Geraldine is enjoying her eternal celebration in heaven and her spirit lives joyously in all of us who will always love and cherish her memory.
