

Weep not for me, though I have gone
Into that gentle night,
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears,
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone,
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory, I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife,
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.

A Grandmother Just Like You

I just want to let you know
You mean the world to me
Only a heart as dear as yours
Would give so unselfishly.
The many things you've done
All the times that you were there
Help me know deep down inside
How much you really care.
Even though I might not say
I appreciate all you do,
Richly blessed is how I feel
Having a grandmother just like you.
Love Keshia

Obituary

Beulah Mae Sloan Alexander, 72, of 3113 Keys St., passed away peacefully on January 31, 2018, with her family at her bedside. Beulah was born in Anderson, SC on June 6, 1945 to the late N. A. and Caree Sloan. She married the late Raymond Alexander in 1959 and had one daughter, the late Sheila Dorene Sloan.

Beulah became a baptized Jehovah's Witness on August 13, 2011 and was part of the South Anderson congregation.

Beulah was a very witty, loving and faithful provider for her family. Her smile radiated as she walked into a room and her presence was known. She spent her life helping and serving others and eventually retired from Clemson University in 2005. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends, especially traveling with her congregation to various conventions. She also enjoyed spending time with her sister, and above all, spending time with her most prized jewels, her great and great-great grandchildren.

Beulah is survived by and leaves to cherish her precious memories to her only living sister, Gladys Sloan Putman of Pendleton, SC; her two grandchildren, Roderick Sloan of Anderson, SC and Cicely Sloan (Tavares) of Anderson, SC; two great grandchildren, Shakeshia (Julian) Wright, and Tyleah Miller both of Anderson, SC; two great-great grandchildren, Aubri and Ayden; as well as a host of caring relatives and friends.

Beulah was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Alexander; parents, N. A. and Caree Sloan; one daughter, Sheila Dorene Sloan; siblings, Newton A Sloan, David Sloan, Willie D.M. Sloan and Betty Jean Sloan.
