She's on Her Throne

*God is calling people home
Name by name and soul by soul.*

*We know you had to go
Because your name was next on the roll.
We all feel that you were Taken way too soon.*

*It hurts us so bad
When Nevaeh looks up at the night sky
And says my Granny is in the moon.*

*We love you so much
Words can't explain*

*It hurts so bad that we'll
Never get to say those words to you again.*

Evelyn Darlene Valentine Pruitt

*We know you're walking the streets of gold
Headed to your throne
Wearing your beautiful crown.
We promise to keep you proud
While you are in heaven looking down.*

Love your daughters and grandbaby

~ Obituary ~

Ms. Evelyn Darlene Pruitt, was born September 3, 1957 at Anderson Hospital and departed this life on February 8, 2018 at AnMed Health. She was born to the late David "Titt" Valentine and the late Cornelia Johnson Valentine.

She joined Pine Grove Baptist Church at a very early age. She was a very active member of the church, President of the Pulpit Aid, member of the Missionary Board, Program organizer/planner, President of the Unity Choir until her health would not allow her to anymore. She was a graduate of Crescent High School, class of 1976. She graduated from Anderson College with a degree in Tailoring/Interior Design. She worked several years at Bobby Dan as a seamstress, Anderson School District Three as a bus driver and a substitute teacher. She retired from Gerber in Pelzer in the early 1990s.

She leaves to mourn three daughters, Varenia Alfreda (Kerri) Griffin of the home, Monica Monique Rice of the home and Beenessa La'Quan (Ron) Lesesne of Asheville NC; three grandchildren Evelyn Nevaeh Chantez Pruitt-Lee, who was the jewel of her eye, of the home, Tamia L.
