*All the years we spent
Loving and caring,
We've lost a precious soul.
Our hearts are now weary...
We won't question God.
We won't ask Him why
For we know we'll meet again,
Someday in the sweet by and by.
You're gone from us and we'll miss you.
Heaven is now your home...
You'll walk the streets of heaven
With sweet Jesus you will roam.
Though we'll be missing you
We'll find a way to get through.
In our hearts you'll forever stay
And we'll always love you.
Take your rest...smile down on us
From the beautiful sky above.
Each day we see the sunrise
We'll know you're sending your love.*

Obituary

*For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
Hebrews 4:12*

Leonard Merriweather departed this life on Monday, October 8, 2018 at John and Callie Rainey Hospice House of the Upstate in Anderson, SC. Leonard was born on August 20, 1934. He was the son of the late John Henry Merriweather and Lillian Pickens Merriweather.

He was first married to the late Mary Elizabeth Blanding Merriweather. Through this union six children were born: Dianne Merriweather, Larry (Ann) Merriweather, Joyce Ann (Joe Billy) Armstrong, Lillian (David) Burns, Johnny (Laura) Merriweather, and Lisa Cowan.

In 2002, he married Ella M. Dennis. He became the father to Renee (Reggie) Davis, Charles Dennis, Michael (Melissa) Dennis, Chris (Teresa) Dennis and Cindy Dennis.

Leonard retired as a supervisor from Cable East in the early 2000's. He enjoyed working outside, working on cars, and spending time with his family. Leonard was a faithful member at Evergreen Baptist Church. He served as a Deacon until his health declined.

Those who knew him loved him and he was loved by many. Along with his wife and children, he also leaves to cherish his memory, one sister, Betty Ruth Merriweather; twenty-five grandchildren; twenty-nine great grandchildren; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives, and close friends.

In addition to his first wife, he was also preceded in death by one sister, Mary Ann Hill and one brother, Leroy Merriweather.
