

"Sleep, My Brother"

*I wish you sweet sleep, my brother dear,
Although there's so much that you've left bare
I hate that you had to endure such pain
On my mind, your saddened eyes have left a stain.
I want to know what crossed your mind,
Unspoken words you've left behind.
Undone things we'll never do
No sharing thoughts you never knew.
A peace has fallen upon your head,
A taste of sorrow we have been fed
It really is like a hole in our lives
One swiftly dug but carved out by knives.
But I have hope that those sleeping will rise
The Bible says that God will open their eyes.
No suffering, sickness, yes not even pain,
Those who did good, eternal life they'll gain.
So... sleep on my brother, sleep tight
For now with you the sky is night.
But after night will come daybreak
Therefore I will wait hoping to see you awake.*

Acknowledgments

The family of the late Chadwick Orlando Smith wishes to thank each and everyone who made his life vital, uplifting and encouraging. The numerous prayers to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, the visits at the hospital, the cards, food, or a friendly smile. We really do appreciate the love that you gave. May the Lord continue to keep you in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on him.

Obituary

Chadwick Orlando Smith went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday afternoon on March 12, 2019.

He graduated from Pendleton High School in 2000. Later he attended Tri-County Technical College for two years. He was employed at First Quality Tissue at the time of his death.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Tiffany Kennedy Smith; one daughter, Chania Smith; parents, Tommy and Olivia Webb Jones; one sister, Kennetha Smith; in-laws, Bernard and Natalie Springer; one brother-in-law, Joshua Kennedy; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Ethel Webb, Sheffield and Zelma Jones.

*And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
Revelation 21:4*
