

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end,
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared,
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul,
Let love abound in all your hearts,
Let heaven be your goal.*

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
Each time that you think of me,
I know you will miss me too.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.*

Obituary

Mrs. Gracie L. Carson Scott was born October 4, 1944 in Iva, SC and departed this life on Tuesday, August 20, 2019 in Anderson, SC.

She was the daughter of the late Charlie Bunyan and Eula Mae Williams Carson. She was married to Emanuel C. Scott for 53 years.

Gracie retired from Owens Corning Fiberglas after working there for over 30 years. She was a former member of Cross Road C.M.E. Church in Iva, SC and currently she was a member of Evergreen Baptist Church, where served as President of the Deaconess Board.

Gracie was a caregiver, provider, and helped raise many children throughout her life.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories, her husband; son, Brian Gillard; sister, Charlie Carson Murray; brother, Rev. James McKee; one granddaughter, Brooke Gillard; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, in-laws, and close friends.

In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her brothers, Ralph, James, and Ezekiel Carson.

Acknowledgments

We would like to express our sincere thanks for all the outpouring of love and kindness in our time of bereavement. Your compassion and expressions of sympathy have truly been a blessing.
