

God Saw You Getting Tired

*God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come unto me".
You didn't deserve what you went through,
And so He gave you rest,
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.
So when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain,
I could not wish you to come back,
To suffer that all again.*

I'll Fly Away

Some glad morning when this life is o'er
I'll fly away
To that home on God's celestial shore
I'll fly away.

I'll fly away, oh glory, I'll fly away
When I die, hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away.

Just a few more weary days and then
I'll fly away,
To that land where joy will never end,
I'll fly away.

I'll fly away, oh glory, I'll fly away
When I die, hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away.

Obituary

Mrs. Ethel Williford, 93, passed away on Tuesday, February 18, 2020 at NHC-Anderson. She was born on May 6, 1926 to the late Bennie and Daisy Brown Moss.

Mrs. Williford was the last survivor of her immediate family.

She leaves a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins to cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Acie Williford; parents, Bennie and Daisy Brown Moss; seven sisters, Myrte Galloway, Alvene Walker, Helen Beaty, Fannie Anne Mattison, Bonnie Moss, Zenobia Mattison, and Ruth Fant; and two brothers, O'dell Moss and Cullen Moss.

Acknowledgments

Gratitude and thanks are conveyed for the many expressions shown during the death of our love one. We would like to give a special thanks to Markeshia Brock and Retha Adger for their dedication and support to our aunt during her illness.
