

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free!

Miss me a little, but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go!

For this a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.

The Nance & Hoover Family

Obituary

On June 25, 2020, Linda Marie Hoover Nance got her wings and went to walk with the angels. She was the wife of the late Samuel Lee Nance, Jr. She was born on October 24, 1958 to the late Eliza Reed Hoover and Butler Hoover.

Linda was an exceptional wife and stay-at-home mom. She cared and loved her family deeply. She did this not out of obligation but because of who she was. She always provided support and love for the family. She loved to cook, play cards, take rides and spending time with her family.

Linda is survived by her daughter, Melinda Nance (James); three sons, Bernard Hoover, Leroy Nance, and Eric Nance (Kayla); six grandchildren and one great grandson; two sisters, Mary J. Hoover and Cathy Williams (Patrick); and a host of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Samuel Lee Nance, Jr; her parents, Eliza Reed Hover and Butler Hoover; brothers, Steve Hoover, Alexander Hoover, Randolph Hoover, Edward Hoover; and sister, Diane Hoover Mattison.
