

"She Is Gone"

You can shed tears that she is gone

Or you can smile because she lived,

You can close your eyes

And pray that she will come back,

Or you can open your eyes

And see all that she has left.

Your heart can be full of the love that you shared,

You can remember her memory and let it live on,

You can cry and close your mind,

Be empty and turn your back,

Or you can do what she would want,

Smile, open your eyes, love and go on,

She's gone, but will be forever in our hearts.

*Know that you are loved
From the oldest to the youngest
Know that you have gave
To the wanderers to the hungriest
Know that you are special
From your tenderness to your hardest
Know that you are sweet
To your helpfulness to your kindness.
Know that she is at peace
Know that her pain has ceased.
Know that she is at home,
So know she is never gone,
But now basking in glory
In her eternal home.*

*Your oldest,
David Michael Rainey*

Obituary

Mrs. Janice Loretta Scott, 66, of Anderson, SC, passed away on Monday, August 3, 2020 at AnMed Health Medical Center.

Mrs. Janice Scott made no strangers as she was in and out of lives of people all over the Upstate area. She was well known for taking into her home those who needed a place of refuge and making them feel like family while she provided what was needed for their welfare. Mrs. Scott was no stranger in the kitchen, and as she would put it “throw down” with a smile on her face. She took joy helping to feed those who were in need, just as her mother Janette Scott did before her. She loved walking, visiting family, and being so proud of her grandbabies. You can bet that she would be found checking on friends or watching movies like never seen it before. She has taken great delight in helping herself to extra helpings of her oldest daughter, Tonya Vassell’s banana pudding.

Mrs. Scott was raised and reared in the church. As she matured in life, it was evident she found her greatest peace in the church. She loved her church and church family. She was willing to do what she could in her own way to help the church to continue on a prosperous journey. Her oldest son recalls that he never heard a cross word from his mother about the church, church family, or the Pastor from his mother.

She is survived by her children, David Rainey (Dorothy), Tonya Vassell (Gandy), Rebecca Rainey and Charles Rainey; two sisters, Cheryl Turner and Ann Robinson; two brothers, Monroe Scott and Robert Scott; her grandchildren whom she loved dearly, Vearshon Rainey, Courtney Bradley, T’yanna Rainey, Brayden Rainey, Treyvon Rainey, Jaylen Ellis, Janaya Rainey, Michaelia Rainey, David Rainey, II, Fletcher Ellis, and Isaiah Rainey; and over the hill over her great grandson, Caden Vassell; and host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her husband, David Rainey; parents, James Thomas Scott and Jeanette Hood Scott; one sister, Stella Scott Spear; and two brothers, James Bill Scott and Harry Scott.
