

Lion's Heart
(The King's Dead)

Attention to all those that can hear.
Today, we see a warrior, a partner in love, & crime, a teacher, a friends, a son, and most importantly a father,
pass on to the next life.

And though he goes from this world to a new Kingdom, he made sure to leave for his sons MyDrick, Jerick, Terick &
Mike to take care of his Kingdom here on earth.

Everyone he knew here should think of all the great memories he gave and smile because he still loves you.
Try not to be sad, for there's an endless party waiting for him where he'll make sure he is the star of the show.

And for those that are sad, that will miss his hyena laugh, dance moves, and especially his cooking. Just know we're all a part of his pride, so we need to serve for him like he always served for us. Because he was a king with a lion's heart

“Missing You Always”

You never said I'm Leaving
You never said goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.

In life we loved you dearly
In death we love you still
In our hearts we hold a place
Where only you can fill.

If broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
A part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Remembering Ricky's Life

Ricky Hall was born August 17, 1968 in Anderson, South Carolina to Mae Lue Allen and the late Ulyses (Cecil) Hall. He departed his earthly home Sunday, November 29, 2020 at Prisma Health, Greenville Memorial Hospital.

Ricky declared his Faith earlier in life at Flat Rock CME Church, Hartwell, Georgia and attended Relentless Church, Greenville, South Carolina. He was a 1987 graduate of Hart County High School, Hartwell, Georgia. He was employed with Thyssen Krupp as a driver. Ricky was loved by many for his kind heartedness and his cooking for family and friends.

Ricky was preceded in death by his daughter, Ricknaesha Hall; son, Richard A. Hall; grandparents, Gammie (GH) Hall, Rosa Lee Belcher, Mary Frances Hardmon and John T. Hardmon.

Ricky leaves to cherish his memories, the love of his life for 25 years (his “Boogie”) Stephanie Murray; sons, LaMichael (Angela) Curry of Gainesville, Georgia, Jerick Hall and Jaterick Hall, both of Atlanta, Georgia and MyDrick Hall of Easley, South Carolina; one granddaughter, Lakiera Curry of Hartwell, Georgia; brothers, Ulyses Hall, Jr. of Hartwell, Georgia, Raphael (Taunja) Hall of Anderson, South Carolina and Jerrell Allen of Atlanta, Georgia; three special nieces, Haley, Taylor and Layla Murray of Williamston, South Carolina; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
