Obituary

Mrs. Cary Ann Williford was born in Pendleton, SC on December 19, 1962 to the late Lewis Reese, Sr. and Henrietta F. Reese. She departed her life on Saturday, December 26, 2020.

Mrs. Williford was a graduate of Daniel High School. After High School, Mrs. Williford attended Tri-County Tech where she majored in Accounting but never completed. She then met the love of her life, Melvin Wendell Williford in 1981. On April 4, 1990, the two were married. July 12, 1990, she gave birth to their only child, Melvin Wendell Williford Jr.

Mrs. Williford worked at NCR for years. She then started working at the Red Fern on Clemson University Campus until her death. She was a beloved sister, devoted wife, mother, and grandmother.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her husband of 30 years, Melvin Wendell Williford; her son, Melvin Wendell Williford, Jr. (Ebony); grandson, Melvin Wendell Williford, III all of Clemson, SC; siblings, Lewis Reese, Jr. of Maryland, Eness Little (Clyde), and Sterling Reese (Rachel) of Clemson, SC; sisters-in-law, Elaine Swan, Cynthia Adger (Theodore), and Marilyn Cobb of Pendleton, SC; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lewis Reese, Sr. and Henrietta F. Reese; and two sisters, Annis Oglesby and Fannie M. Johnson.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me,
 And I'm not there to see,
 If the sun should rise and find your eyes
 All filled with tears for me,
 I wish so much you wouldn't cry
 The way you did today,
 While thinking of the many things,
 We didn't get to say.
 I know how much you love me,
 As much as I love you,
 Each time that you think of me,
 I know you will miss me too.
 So when tomorrow starts without me,
 Do not think we're apart,
 For every time you think of me
 Remember I'm right here in your heart.*

The love of a FAMILY is
 LIFE'S GREATEST
Blessing
