*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep,
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush,
Of quiet white doves in circled flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.*

Obituary

Mrs. Lois Ware Sloan, daughter of the late James Ware and Marie Bradley Ware, was born May 21, 1929 in Seneca, South Carolina.

She attended Geer Gantt High School through 10th grade. She was married to James Sloan at an early age, and their union was blessed with eleven children. James Sloan preceded her in death in 1973.

Mrs. Sloan was an active member of New Beginning Ministries International. As a result of her generous spirit and pleasant personality, she was loved by many. She was an entrepreneur and was a great example for her family. Her influence will forever remain in the lives of all that knew her. She quietly departed this life to be with the Lord February 6, 2021 at her home in Anderson, South Carolina.

She was preceded in death by her sons, James Henry Sloan, Robert Lee Sloan, and Walter Sloan.

Her life will be remembered with love by her children, William L. (Johnnie Mae) Sloan, Eunice Sloan, Fred A. (Lois) Sloan, Alice M. (John) Martin, Brenda Sloan, Billy R. (Sharon) Sloan, Ronnie (Debra) Sloan, and Calvin T. Sloan; nineteen grandchildren; a sister, Eunice Cobb; and a host of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, cousins, and friends.

*"We remember now in love, your life from start to end,
And we're glad we knew and loved you as a mother and friend."*

Acknowledgments

It's with grateful hearts that we express our thanks to family and friends for all acts of kindness shown during our time of homegoing celebration for Mom. May God richly bless each of you.
