

Pall Bearers

Nephews

Acknowledgements

Your words have comforted us,
your support has strengthened us,
and your love has sustained us.

Thank You

There are not enough words to express our sincerest thanks for the sympathy, love, and support you have shown to our family during this time of loss.
the Family of Agnes Geneva Walker

Celebration
of Life

Grace: January 14, 1948

Mrs. Agnes Geneva Peppers

WALKER

Glory: April 28, 2021

Thursday ~ May 6, 2021

One O'Clock in the Afternoon

Holly Springs Cemetery

Hwy 187

Anderson, South Carolina

Reverend Dr. Curtis Hill, Officiating

Professional Services Entrusted to:
Marcus D. Brown Funeral Home, Inc.
1212 South Main Street
Anderson, South Carolina 29624
(864)225-2220

“An Eternal Flame of Remembrance”

Order of Service

Minister Ollie Allgood, Presiding

Prelude.....	Musician.....	Soft Music
Processional.....	Ministers & Family
Inspiration from Scripture
Old Testament.....	Deacon Bernard Springer
New Testament.....	Deacon Bernard Springer
Prayer.....	Minister John Quarles
Solo.....	Sister Rosa Grayden
Obituary.....	Silently Observed
Remarks.....	Sister Rachel Grate
Eulogy.....	Reverend Dr. Curtis Hill
Committal.....
Benediction.....

Interment

Holly Springs Cemetery
5917 Highway 187
Anderson, SC 29625

Acknowledgement

The Walker Family would like to thank everyone for your thoughts, prayers and sympathy during our time of bereavement.

We love you all.

Obituary

Mrs. Agnes Geneva Peppers Walker, age 73, departed this life on Wednesday, April 28, 2021 at AnMed Health Medical Center, Anderson, SC. She was born on January 14, 1948, in Pickens County to the late Mr. Robert Peppers, Jr. and Mrs. Mary Louise Martin Peppers. She was a devoted wife, mother, daughter, grandma/meme, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend. She loved her family and friends dearly.

At an early age, Agnes became a member of Goldenview Baptist Church where she started perfecting her singing. Later, she joined New Holly Light Missionary Baptist Church where her love for singing and worshipping continued. Additionally, she was a member of the Senior Missionary of New Holly Light Missionary Baptist Church.

She was previously employed at Anderson Oconee Head Start for many years and later went back to her favorite job of being a homemaker.

Agnes leaves behind to cherish many fond memories, daughter Candace Maddox (Eddie) of Anderson SC, sons Jimmy L. Walker (Rolitha) of Powdersville SC, Barnard Walker (Joennell) of Walhalla SC, and John Walker (Penny) of Anderson SC; grandchildren reared in the home Sade Shuler and LaTrey Simpson-Walker (Sandra), 17 grandchildren, 13 great-grands; 7 siblings Barbara Burgess, Robbie Scott (Al), Donna Moultry, Min. Pamela Blassingame (Harold), Gladys Galloway (Orell), Min. Robert F. Peppers (Bridgette), Rhonda Gibbs, one living Uncle William Peppers Sr. (Johnnie), and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Agnes was preceded in death by her daughter Sandra Denise Walker. Agnes was a graduate of both Riverside High School and Tri-County Technical College Pendleton, SC.