If I could write from Heaven
this is what I'd say,
Please don't miss me too much,
I'm with you throughout your day.
You may not see or hear me,
but if you're quiet and still,
You may just FEEL MY PRESENCE;
because, in Heaven, there is free will.
Don't worry for the day,
it will come and go as planned,
Enjoy each moment you are given,
keep worry from your hand.
Keep sorrow to a minimum;
For if Heaven you could see,
You'd know I'm SAFE AND HAPPY,
I did not cease to be.
Moments in time are brief,
until we'll be together again,
as Eternity lasts Forever,
our lives, they have no end.

Obituary

Mr. Grady Clinkscales was born August 11, 1921 to Forest and Mahalia Clinkscales in Anderson, SC. He departed this life on Wednesday, September 8, 2021, at Richard Campbell Veterans Nursing Home.

Pops as he was affectionately called, was a centenarian, a decorated World War II Veteran, a master mechanic, hunter, and taxicab driver. He was a father figure to many on the Southside 164th street before returning to Anderson, South Carolina.

A particular picture comes to mind of an old WWII picture of a soldier on the back of a truck with his hand extended to help another GI get up. This was our Pops, always helping others. He would often say: "Death is easy, living is hard".

So don't mourn our father, but instead celebrate his long and wonderful life and all the conversations.

His memories will never be forgotten by his wife, Addie Moore Clinkscales; daughters, Donna Clinkscales and Christal Clinkscales; sons, Anthony Clinkscales, Danny Clinkscales, Billy Clinkscales, Corey Clinkscales, and Bobby Isom; forty-seven grandchildren; one hundred eleven great-grandchildren; one sister, Marion Skelton; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and close friends.

In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by two daughters, Doris Clinkscales and Yvette Clinkscales; one sister, Rosa Mae Johnson; and three brothers, J.C. Clinkscales, Nathaniel Clinkscales, and Willard Clinkscales.

Acknowledgments

The family would like to thank all of you for your acts of kindness, love and many blessings. We are sincerely grateful for your prayers during our time of bereavement.
