Obituary

Queen Elizabeth Chapman Nnaji was born to the union of the late James Matthew Chapman and Edith Elizabeth Chapman on June 4, 1955 in Anderson, South Carolina.

Queen was also known as "Queenie" to most everyone and "Beanie" to very few. She attended D.W. Daniel High School. In 2006, she received an Associate Degree in Business with a Major in Management from Tri-County Technical College. Education was important to her which many witnessed in her daily routine of reading or coloring on her tablet.

She received an honorable discharge from the United States Army Reserve. Queen retired from AFCO, a Bosch fuel-pump plant.

Queen committed her life to Christ and became a member of Greater Faith Baptist Church in Clemson, South Carolina. She was a woman who loved her family deeply and truly cared for those closest to her. Queen would light up the room with her beautiful smile.

To celebrate her life and cherish her wonderful memories are her daughter, Jantisha Rochelle Collins (Jason); sons, Gregory Bernard Chapman (Elaine) and Chauncey Demetrius Chapman (Shena); eight grandchildren, Gregory Phillips, Lakea Chapman, Braxton Collins, Jakeim Chapman, Jaydon Collins, Adarryius Butler, Corday Chapman and Cory Collins; one great-grandchild, Jediah Phillips; brother, James Albert Chapman, sister, Linda Whitner; eight bonus grandchildren, three bonus great-grandchildren; two nieces, four nephews, six great-nieces, nine great-nephews (two of the home, Jamauri and Jalonte Chapman); one aunt, Marilyn Artist and a host of relatives.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James Matthew Chapman and Edith Elizabeth Chapman; two brothers, John Patrick Chapman and Timothy Matthew Chapman; one nephew, James Brandon Chapman.

A Letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.
