The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my

soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD

forever.

“No more Questions”

“Mama”...We leave you today with tears in our eyes. All we can do at the present moment is to cry. Your smiles will be remembered as the sun is thought of on a rainy day. We honestly feel that we'll see you standing amongst the saints on that glorious day when the sky unfolds and God shows his blessed face.

We realize that we are nothing to question God, so we have accepted the fact that you're there with God. We have no more questions for we realize that the Lord, Our God, is Sovereign.

Sharing “Siggie’s” Story

Mrs. Siggie Hattie Allgood Gambrell was born on February 2, 1944 in Anderson County to the late James Dennis "J.D." and Lessie Williams Allgood. She departed this life on November 29, 2021.

Siggie graduated from Riverside High School in 1962. She joined Mt. Able Baptist Church at an early age, where she worked in many capacities in the church: missionary worker, singing on the gospel choir and later she joined the senior choir.

Siggie found relief in singing; not simply as a hobby, it was her God-given gift—something she LOVED doing. If you ever called upon her in need of an uplift with a song, she was always right there. Siggie and husband of nearly sixty years, James Gambrell, traveled throughout South Carolina, Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, New Jersey and Philadelphia singing at various musical programs. She even professionally recorded some of her favorite songs; such as, “If My People (Who Are Called By My Name)” and “Hold to God’s Unchanging Hand.” She loved calling people on their birthdays to sing her very own happy birthday song.

Siggie's smile and especially her voice will dearly be missed by so many she blessed throughout the years.

Siggie leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, James O. Gambrell; three sons, Rick (Ophelia) Gambrell, Rev. Fredrick (Dorothy Annette) Gambrell, and Rev. Eric Gambrell; seven grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren; two sisters, Thelma McBride and Lucester Stowers; one brother, James Allgood; one daughter-in-law, Patricia Walker Gambrell; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Siggie was preceded in death by her parents, J.D. and Lessie Williams Allgood; two sons, Gregory Gambrell and Rev. James E. Gambrell; three sisters, Inez Lee, Virgie Burnside, and Nancy Gambrell; and four brothers, Cathell N. Allgood, Benjamin Allgood, Gendale Allgood, and Eston Allgood.
