In Loving Memory

Frederick Allen Hale

April 17, 1938 - May 25, 2022

84 Years

Fred was born at Plunkett, SK to Arthur and Ethel (nee Williamson) Hale. He obtained all his education at Badger School with Mr. Brock Duke.

Fred's love for the land and farming was deeply rooted at an early age. He farmed 20 miles south and west of Humboldt with his brother Cyril and Cyril's wife Louise for many years. They ran a mixed farm where Fred specialized in being a good "rock farmer."

It was not always all work for Fred, he enjoyed curling and the duties of being the ice maker. He also volunteered with the Wildlife Federation and was an avid Bronco fan.

Fred's life changed on November 27, 1976, after a short, whirlwind romance. He married Doris Haynal at the Westminster United Church in Humboldt.

Fred became an instant father to Doris's four children. He rose to the occasion and became a very positive influence in their lives. Fred adored her children and later their grandchildren.

After their marriage Fred moved to Humboldt but continued to farm from town. Together Fred and Doris did some traveling to destinations in Canada, USA, and Mexico.

Fred retired from farming at the end of harvest time in 2009. In retirement Fred continued with his ice making skills at the Humboldt Curling Club for many years and continued to be a great supporter of the Humboldt Broncos.

In 2015 they moved to a condo at Parkview Place Humboldt where he enjoyed his time as President of their condo board and socializing with all the residents

Fred regularly attended discussion groups. One that met most mornings at McDonalds and one in the afternoon at Wong's where the retired "Farmers Union" met.

Fred's quiet manner, welcoming smile will be sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife of 45 years Doris Hale of Humboldt; three stepchildren, eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren:

Jocelyn Mennie of Tampa, FL USA, and daughters Sarah Rowe (Steven) of Tampa, FL USA, and Kathryn Rowe (Byron) of Orlando, FL USA.

Gerard Haynal (Kris Gallinger) of Edmonton and family; Kelsy Wittmann (Rob Stitt) and children Coen and Kai Wittmann all of Vancouver, BC, Daria (Greg) Malin and children Elliott, Allister, and Jack all of Saskatoon, Elaine MacKenzie Haynal of Vancouver, BC and Jacob Frederick Gallinger-Haynal of Edmonton, AB.

Jennifer (Stephen) Washington of Calgary, AB, and daughters Alyssa (Marcus) Morris of Pinang, Malaysia and Samantha Washington of Calgary, AB.

Daughter-in-Law Wendy Haynal, Edmonton Alberta

Daughter-in-Law (Eric) Terri Haynal, Penticton, BC.

Two brothers and two sisters: James (Janet) Hale of Plunkett, Iris Ernst of Watrous, Edwin (Linda) Hale of Porcupine Plain, Janice (Jim) Hale of Saskatoon and sister-in-law Louise Hale of Humboldt.

And by numerous nieces and nephews.

Fred was predeceased by his parents Arthur and Ethel Hale; Stepson Eric Haynal; grandson Grae Haynal; sister Muriel Fink; brothers David Hale and Cyril Hale; brother-in-law Merle Ernst; father and mother-in-law George and Alice (nee Bilusack) Bulai and brother-in-law Edward and his wife (Judy) Bulai
