THE OBITUARY

On February 2, 2018, our lives changed forever. We knew this day would come, but our hope was never. We spent the last days sharing time together. You knew something we didn't know, that's why You called us together. Patricia, thank you for all the memories and all the values we shared. We couldn't have asked for a better loved one, but now you are in God's care.

With love in her heart and peace with her family, God sent down his angels and summoned Patricia Ann Hayes. Born in Kershaw County on March 27, 1950, she was the daughter of the late Christopher Hayes and Rena 'Sis' Hayes. Patricia attended Jackson High School and was raised in St. Paul United Methodist Church. She was a devoted member of the Gospel Choir, Communion Stewart, Trustee, Children's Choir Assistant and devoted Sunday School servant. Patricia was employed at Skyline and was a home health caregiver for several years. Patricia had a special way with people and a warm, affectionate smile. Patricia enjoyed spending time with her family, talking on the phone with friends, and caring for her grandchildren at SAP Daycare, where they shared and played! To know Patricia was to truly love Patricia.

Those left to cherish her everlasting love and relish in her precious memories while celebrating her homegoing are: Her daughter, Teresia Hayes of Lugoff, South Carolina and daughter, Dr. Camisha (Randal) Williams of Camden, South Carolina; Her grandchildren, Porsche Joyner, Bre' Anna Hayes, Serena Hayes, Mikkel Bush of Camden, South Carolina, Michael Lewis Hayes of Belmont, North Carolina, Amari Williams, Jaden Hayes, Belle Williams, and Michaela Hayes of Camden, South Carolina; Four great grandchildren, Tristan Joyner, Maurice Johnson, Jr., Kyrie Bush, and Cayden Bush of Camden, South Carolina; Two sisters, Jean Hayes and Barbara Jean (Theodore) Brown of Camden, South Carolina; Three brothers, Henry Hayes of Caramel, New York, John (Patricia) Hayes of Camden, South Carolina, and Jeffery (Sharon) Hayes of Lugoff, South Carolina; a host of special nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles, and other relatives and friends.

Patricia also leaves behind a special son, Derrick Dixon of Lugoff, South Carolina; her godmother Ethel Dixon of Camden, South Carolina; her god family Leigh Ann (Sherwood) Smith and Savannah Smith of Charlotte, North Carolina, and god granddaughter, Jasmine Hatcher of Camden, South Carolina.

Patricia was preceded in death by her son, Michael Hayes and her sister, Beverly Hayes Brown.
