Willie worked, with gratitude for 35 years until his retirement in 2004. In 1986, he became a member of the FreeMason Masonic Temple Joppa Lodge, in Brooklyn, New York.

Willie was a pillar in his community. One of his many joys in life was coaching baseball for fifteen years in the Marcy Houses. He won many championships, accolades, and awards. He was a member of the Tenant Patrol Association for both Marcy Houses and Kingsborough Houses where he resided. Willie enjoyed his independent living, he volunteered at his local community pantry, where he assisted in assembling grocery package giveaways. He attended Sunday morning services at his local community church.
