

EULOGY

Olga Victoria Osborne Brown was born on June 2nd, 1928 in the Province of Oriente, Cuba, the eldest of three children, to Charles Leopold and Naomi Osborne. At the early age of four years old, after the death of her darling mother, the three children out of that union were brought to Jamaica by their father, who soon passed away also. She was then brought up by a wonderful grandmother, and a loving Aunt Estella, called Aunt Essy, who passed away in her (Sister Brown's) adult years.

She got her early education at the Jones Town Primary School under the headmastership of Teacher Rickets, who knew her personally, as she was the favorite of his 'daughters.' She would pick wild flowers and take them to her 3rd grade teacher, who would invite her to her home during holidays. She then went on to Kingston Senior School at the age of 11 years old, after which she went to the Stratford High School and then Commercial School under the teacher-ship of our beloved Pastor Seymour Cole.

During that time, she accepted the Lord as her personal Saviour, under the leadership of our Beloved Pastor Dr. Frank S. Bent, Doctor of Divinity, in the year 1947, at the age of 19 years old. She loved the Lord with all her heart, and taught Sunday School, as well as sang on the choir; one of her favorite songs was 'I'll Meet You in the Morning.'

She took part in many county meetings, traveling to many country churches all over the island with many other young Christians and the pastor, witnessing for the Lord. She found that in the presence of the Lord there was fullness of joy and at his right-hand there are pleasures forevermore.

At the age of twenty-eight, she married Glaister Adolphus Brown, a brother of the Jones Town Gospel Hall in November of 1956. That union, gave them four God-blessed children, who were committed to the Lord and brought up to fear Him. She then came on to the United States in the month of July, 1962, then in two years sent for her three older children and their father.

In a little while after, her youngest was born here in the USA, at which time, she took them back to Jamaica, where they continued the first part of their education. During this time, she went back and forth, and when they finished school there, she and their father brought them back to the United States, where they completed their college education.

She will be missed by her children, her church family, especially for her messages in song, her many relatives on the Osborne side and her many in-laws on the Brown side.
