

IN GRATEFUL APPRECIATION

The family of the late Tashan R.J. Wilson wishes to express deep and heartfelt appreciation for your loving thoughtfulness and concern, including cards, flowers, phone calls, emails, texts, Facebook tributes, visits, your presence here this evening, and especially the comfort of your continuing prayers. We also appreciate those who sent their love from near and far to encourage us during this time. May God bless and keep each of you in His loving embrace and care.

The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change;
Courage to change the things I can;
And wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time,
Enjoying one moment at a time,
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace,
Taking, as He did, this sinful world
As it is, not as I would have it,
Trusting that He will make things right
If I surrender to His will;
So that I may be reasonably happy in this life
And supremely happy with Him
Forever and ever in the next, Amen.

OBITUARY

Tashan Ramel Jarvis Wilson, first-born son of Linbert Roy Saunders and Lisa Marie Wilson, entered the world on April 6th, 1982. Tashan transitioned on Thursday, May 6th, 2021. He is survived by his mother Lisa Wilson; two sisters: Tunisia Zaire Wilson and Tanzania Jahzeal Vernon-Craighead; a brother-in-law Chris Craighead; his nieces: Olivia Craighead and Aniyah Vassell; his aunt Danyetta Wilson; niece Danielle Wilson; his uncle Leslie Wrong; his aunt Terry Wrong; and his cousins: Robin Wilson, Terrena Wrong, Victoria Wrong, Shani Moore, Jazmine Moore, Sabrina Moore and Marc Moore. Tashan had many friends he considered family, namely: Ms. Keisha, Relz, Mike, Rich, and countless others throughout the years. Tashan's partner, Nadia, and their dog, Royal, were his backbone.

Tashan was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, popular throughout the Flatbush, Crown Heights and Canarsie areas. He received his education in Brooklyn and was an honor roll student at St. Paul Community Christian School. Tashan graduated from John F. Kennedy High School, and went on to pursue business school.

An entrepreneur and comedian at heart, Tashan worked his way up from security at many clubs in New York to becoming a beloved party promoter, planner, investor and small business owner, always looking to bring everyone a good time and create opportunities for everyone.

Tashan was a generous, caring young man with a sense of humor that had us all rolling with laughter. He was an organizer and profoundly proud of his Black culture. He was known for being loyal, loving, protective, and a provider, especially to all the women in his life. Tashan touched many people and liked for his community to feel like they were a part of something bigger than them all.

Tashan loved cars from the very start, and loud reggae, rap, R&B & gospel music bumping in the back every day!

Tashan will be missed for bringing his crazy sense of humor and his meaningful presence into every room.

*The memories of Tashan will live on with us forever.
Love and Respect. Selah!*

Though restrictions are starting to be lifted, we are still closely monitoring the situation with the COVID-19 pandemic. With that in mind and the safety of all concerned, we are still recommending adherence to the recommended guidelines of the NYC Health Department and the CDC. Thus, all who enter this chapel must be wearing a mask; and although it is unnatural and difficult, especially during this time when the family needs you most, physical contact with family, and with one another as well as the body is not suggested. Social distancing (keeping 6 feet apart) is still required. Also, the complete service must be contained within one hour for the sake of limited exposure. Your cooperation is most appreciated during this temporary disruption of life as we know it.
