Murene's Life

On December 29, 1959, Murene Olivia Gibbons, fondly known as “Libby” and “Chico”, was born to the late Hugh Gibbons and Victoria Gibbons Shannon. One of eleven children, she never let us forget, “They saved the best for last”. On October 30, 2019, Libby earned her wings. She joined the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us and encouraged her loved ones to press toward the mark of their higher calling. Early in life Libby joined the First Zion Baptist Church in Rockmart, Georgia.

Libby was attended schools in the Rockmart area and graduated in 1977. After graduating she became employed at Shaw Industries and later moved to Cartersville, Georgia. She made many friends over the years, both young and old. Her smile, love, and care-free spirit for life invited those whose crossed her path. Libby welcomed everyone into her circle, heart, and home, and was known by many as “Ma Libby”.

For several years, due to her physical disabilities, Libby was assisted and cared for by many of those she touched in the “The Garden”, where she resided for many years. During this time she and her family were shown love and compassion in return.

Libby was preceded in death by her parents; three siblings, John, Robert, and Joann Gibbons.

Continuing to remember the life and love of Libby are her children, Jana V. Joyner and Alex B. Joyner; most prized possessions, her grandson's, Jordan “Jo-Jo” Sims and Sacovie White; God-daughter, Monique White; God-son's, Terrance Clemmons and Jarius “Jay” Cory; siblings, Hugh D. Gibbons of Cartersville, Georgia, Maggie Gibbons of Cedartown, Georgia, Jessie Harris of Cedartown, Georgia, Alice Gibbons of Rockmart, Georgia, Jan Collier of Wichita Kansas, Debra Roberts of Rome, Georgia, and Frank (Barbara) Gibbons of Killen, Texas; and a host of other relatives, loved ones and friends.
