

Norman Hauglid was born on a farm east of Jasper, Minnesota, the son of Albert and Alice (Lodahl) Hauglid on October 23, 1924, the middle child of nine children. At the age of 7, he went to live with his uncle Joe and aunt Alma Collins north of Dell Rapids where Norm could follow his dream of living on a farm, being taught all about the world of agriculture and getting his hands dirty becoming a successful farmer.

While attending St. Mary High School, Norm met Rosemary Eulberg and married his high school sweetheart on September 19, 1946, embracing their love for 71 years until Rosemary passed in 2017. Married at St. Mary Catholic Church, the couple remained active and faithful servants of the Lord all their lives.

In 1949, Norm rode in a boxcar to Chicago to attend the International Livestock Expo with his short horned bull. The bull was awarded the Grand Champion of all breeds and sold for $3000. In 1970's Norm sent a captioned picture to the Reader's Digest quoting: "The only piece of equipment John Deere doesn't stand behind is their manure spreader!" This article was published in the Reader's Digest a short time later! Norm was a board member of the Dell Rapids COOP Lumber, Dell Rapids Community Hospital Board, and the Moody County Soil Conservation Board.

Safford, Arizona was the Hauglid's southern home in the winter for over 25 years, and they enjoyed each year they "went south." Their door was always open for visitors; they enjoyed golfing, dune bugging, dancing, and their Friday night Community Room gatherings. Norman enjoyed taking classes at the college to expand his expertise in his stain glass skills. Along with stain glass, at the farm in his workshop, you could find him working on a hope chest for a grandchild's wedding gift or another wood project requested by someone. Taking his boat out for a fishing excursion was a highlight for him too.

Norm and Rosemary were the parents of eight children; Greg (Jo) Hauglid of Dell Rapids, SD, Alice Cordell of Atlanta, GA, Steven Hauglid (deceased 1956), Don (Mary Ann) Hauglid of Tulsa, OK, Nancy Hauglid (deceased 2019), Larry (Tena) Hauglid of Dell Rapids, SD, John (Beck) Hauglid and Mark (Joni) Hauglid both of Colman; 18 grandchildren; 2 step-grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; 6 step-great-grandchildren; one great, great-granddaughter and his brother-in-law, Roger Eulberg of Salt Lake City, UT.

Norm is preceded in death by his wife, Rosemary, son, Steven, daughter, Nancy, three infant grandchildren, Jennifer, Jesse and Jordon Hauglid; 4 brothers, Alfred Sr., Virgil, Merle, Lester (infant) and four sisters, Gladys Schultz, Lorraine Winter, Lucille Dueth and Leona Stephenson.

*And on the 8th day, God looked down on his planned paradise and said, "I need a caretaker"
-- so God made a Farmer.*

The family thanks all of you for coming today and for the kindness and love you have shown our father.
