Expression of Gratitude

The family is comforted by God's love and our memories of Virginia. The family is also comforted by the outpouring expressions of love both privately and publicly. We cannot adequately express how deeply touched we are by your kindness. Virginia would have appreciated all that has been done to make her life's celebration a lasting memory. It is with the deepest sense of appreciation and great love that we sincerely say, thank you!

Bishop Walter Hawkins Jr. -Eulogist

Virginia was a graduate of Carthage High School in 1971. After graduating, she went on to marry her highschool sweetheart Johnny Walker, enjoying a shared life for over 50 plus years. During their marriage 5 children were born. She was employed with Kohler Company for 38 years where she retired due to health issues. She loved and had a strong spiritual impact on many lives of people that she came in contact with during her employment at Kohler. She was a long-term faithful member of First Missionary Baptist Church in Carthage, Arkansas where she was ordained as a Missionary.

Virginia was preceded in death by her parents Ben and Mary Etta Collins Foster, one son; John Walker, one granddaughter; Marshuanna Randall, two sisters; Ella Bell Moore and Charlene Berry, one brother; Bennie Joe Foster and grandparents. Virginia leaves to cherish her memories: her loving husband of 50 years, Johnny Walker of Carthage, AR: one son, Nicholas (Batina) Walker of Malvern, AR, three daughters; Trinisa (Shawn) Randall, Nathesha Walker of Carthage, AR and Kateena Walker of Hot Springs, AR, two sisters; Bennie Ruthel Foster of New Jersey and Cathy Foster of Magnolia, AR. brother-in-law; Willie (Nancy) Walker, two sister-in-laws; Vivian (Frank) Phillips and Janice (Otis) Blevins. Twelve grandchildren; Zatoria, Cassie, Katedra, Joshua, Antwuan, Araven, Natrice, Jariah, Brianna, Angel and Josiah, four great-grandchildren; Averille, Amir, Alayna, and Amari, one goddaughter; Ciara Stoud and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Nothing loved is ever lost! We may have lost you physically but the love we have for you is forever. Until we meet again Honey, Mom, Grandma and Gingin! Love your family!
