DONELL JAMEKA BRANTLEY

Obituary

Donell Jameka Brantley, aka “DEE BRANT”, 42, of Huntsville, Alabama, passed away on September 20, 2020.

Donell was born in Greensboro, Alabama, on July 3, 1978. He graduated from Jonesboro High School and continued on to advance his education at Tennessee State University, where he received a Bachelor of Science in psychology in 2002.

Donell confessed Christ at St. Matthew Baptist Church at a young age, and rededicated his life to Christ at Swancott Church of Christ, Madison, Alabama. Donell worked for Core & Main as a Warehouse Associate for the last five years. He enjoyed fishing, spending time with his girls, Laila Brantley (14) and Jasmine Brantley (13), and also enjoyed anything that involved a football.

Donell helped the Tennessee State University football team win two OVC conference championships as a Running Back from 1997 to 2001; furthermore, he currently holds the 'Tigers' tenth highest record for scoring in one season (1999). Donell was also a die-hard University of Alabama fan and enjoyed cheering on the Tide!

Donell was preceded in death by his father, Samuel Bagby, and grandmother, Frances Webb.

Donell leaves to cherish his memory, two children, Laila Brantley and Jasmine Brantley, who adored their father, and Christina Brantley, the mother of his children. Donell is also survived by his mother, Bettie Jo Bell (Allen Bell) of Sawyerville, Alabama; siblings, Jerome Brantley and Latina Bell; grandfather, John C. Webb; and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins, and other family, and friends.
