Family Acknowledgement

The family of the late Blondell Jones Andrews wishes to acknowledge the many expressions of sympathy and gestures of kindness shown to us following the loss of our loved one. We offer our heart-felt thanks to the many friends and well wishers who reached out to us, attended the service and burial and who provided emotional and practical support for us at this difficult time. For those who telephoned, emailed, texted, travelled long distances, sent floral tributes, cards and other messages of condolences, as well as those who made charitable donations, we are truly grateful.

Obituary

Mrs. Blondell Andrews, daughter of the late Gladys Henderson and Grover Jones Sr. was born December 5, 1944 in Williamston, South Carolina. She peacefully departed this world on August 16, 2019 to join her parents and siblings.

Blondell attended Geer-Gant Elementary and was a graduate of Spearman High School in 1962. Upon finishing school, she moved to New York to pursue a career in Accounting. She was employed at Pain Webber and Chase Manhattan Bank in New York. After the birth of her only daughter, Tonya, Blondell returned to South Carolina where she continued her accounting work at Bank of America. While living in South Carolina, she met Robert C. Andrews Jr. The two were married on April 2, 1985 and soon after moved to Detroit, Michigan. While residing in Detroit, Blondell was employed with United Way Southeast Michigan until she was no longer able to work. At that point she opened her home to babies and children which soon came to be affectionately known as Mamadell’s Daycare.

Blondell was an active member of John Wesley AME Zion Church, in Detroit, where she was involved with the choir and church bowling league, along with her husband. Blondell and Robert lived in Detroit for 22 years until relocating to Anderson, SC where she remained vigilant in caring for children and being an active member of New Holly Light Missionary Baptist Church. Blondell loved family, socializing, fashion, traveling, shopping, eating desserts, and enjoying life.

Blondell was preceded in death by: her parents, Gladys and Grover Jones Sr.; sister, Blanche Jones Martin; and brothers, Grover Jones Jr., Hayward Jones, Paul Jones, John Henry Jones, and George Jones Sr.

Mrs. Blondell Andrews leaves to cherish her precious and loving memory: her faithful and loving husband, Robert C. Andrews Jr. of Anderson, SC; one daughter, Tonya Payne of Brooklyn, NY; one grand-daughter, Toniqua Mikell of Warwick, RI; one grandson, Kevin Peay Jr. of Irmo, SC; two godchildren, Erika Andrews and Corey Borders of Detroit, MI; her special cousin Helen Shepard of Anderson, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Never Forgotten

You’ll never be forgotten, that simply cannot be.
As long as I am living, I’ll carry you with me.
Safely tucked within my heart, your light will always shine.
A glowing ember never stilled, throughout the end of time.
No matter what the future brings or what may lie ahead.
I know that you will walk with me, along this path I tread.
So rest my angel, be at peace and let your soul fly free.
When it’s my time, I’ll join you there for all eternity.

Your Loving husband,
Robert C. Andrews Jr.
