Life Profile of Reverend Cecil V. Clement

Reverend Cecil V. Clement, 75, husband of Geneva Jones Clement (married 44 years), departed this life on Sunday, September 1, 2019, at AnMed Health Medical Center. Born in Belton, SC, he was the son of Booker T. and Felicia Clinkscales Clement. Rev Clement was a graduate of Geer-Gantt High School (1962) and later received a Bachelor's Degree from Benedict College (1966). For many years he taught Language Arts in the Greenwood County public schools; however, his teaching career was interrupted after being drafted into military services for three years where he served as a medic in the United States Army (stationed in South Korea). He later went to work at Badische Corp., which later became known as BASF, as a long-distance truck driver (traveling the United States and Canada) and received numerous accolades and awards for safe driving. After twenty-five years as a truck driver he retired. After retirement he later worked in security with Guardsmark and American Security and served as a shift supervisor of security at Greenville Memorial Hospital.

Reverend Clement began working in the ministry at Mt. Zion Baptist Church under the guidance of Dr. E.F Mathis where he received his certificate to preach in 1979. Later he was ordained in the Little River Association and served as an associate minister at Liberty Baptist Church, Honea Path, SC with Rev. D.B. Walker. During this time Rev. Clement also owned and operated WHPB Christian Radio Station in Belton, SC. He later left and went to Wilson Calvary Baptist Church in Anderson, SC and served as an interim pastor. After serving at Wilson Calvary Baptist Church he later pastored at D.B. Walker Chapel. He then returned to Liberty Baptist Church, where he served as co-pastor.

Reverend Clement has had various hobbies and lifelong pursuits including photography; drawing; farming; mountain hiking; Boy Scout Leader and Author of many books some of which are titled as follows: "A Tribute to Black History Month"; "Satan's Best Game Going" (Wake Up America! Satan is still on the Loose!); "Focus on Black History Month" (second edition).

Reverend Clement was preceded in death by his parents Booker Terrain (B.T.) and Felicia Clement, brothers, Dallas Richard and Marion Garner Clement.

Reverend Clement leaves to cherish fond memories, his loving wife, Geneva Jones Clement, of the home; daughters, Angelia Jenkins (husband Daniel Jenkins), Charlotte, NC and Jacqueline Henderson, Claracia Clement, both of Jacksonville, FL; son Timothy Clement, Columbia, SC; six grandchildren (Imani Jackson; Imran Jackson; Iyana Jackson; Crystal Clement; Nathaniel Jenkins and Abrielle Jenkins) and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.
