Acknowledgment

We are never quite prepared to face the departure of a loved one to eternal rest. At this most difficult time, it is gratifying to know that relatives and friends share our sorrow and have in so many ways that they care. Your prayers, calls, visits, cards, and other expressions of sympathy have been the tower of our strength. Your words have been heard, your prayers have been felt, and your deeds have been recorded...and the Jarman Family THANKS YOU.

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid”. John 14:27

Our Dearest Dad

*With tears we watched you suffer
As you slowly faded away,
Our hearts were completely broken
As you fought so hard to stay.
We knew you had to leave us
But you never went alone,
Because part of us went with you
The day you left for your eternal home.
We Will Miss You,
Your Children*

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."
Matthew 5:4

Life's Reflections of

Mr. Cleveland E. Jarman, Sr.

The humble spirit, it is written, reaches into two directions, upward to God through Christ, and outward to humanity in response to God's love. Cleveland possessed this descriptive quality of the human spirit as evidenced by his litany of service to God through the church, his service to humanity and his deep love for his family.

Mr. Jarman peacefully passed into eternity on Saturday, April 29, 2017 at Huntsville Hospital. He was born on May 21, 1921 in Courtland, Alabama to the late Elsworth Jarman and the late Pearlean Stevenson Warren.

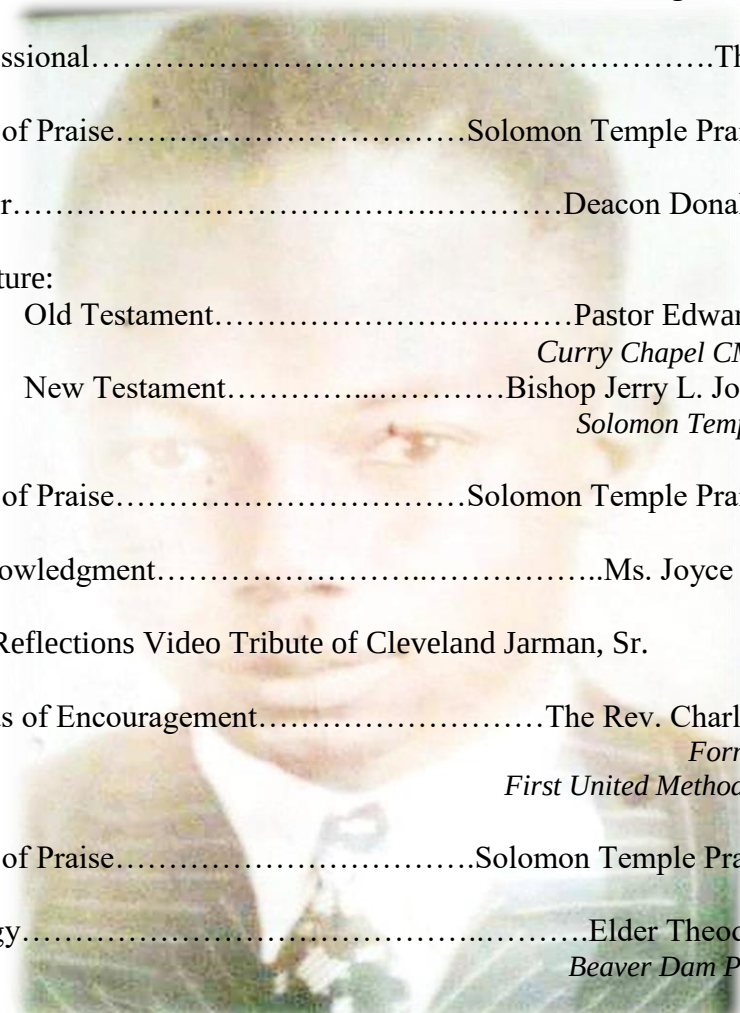

In his early response to Christ, Cleveland became a member of First Missionary Baptist Church of Decatur, but moved his membership to Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church of Decatur, and later united with Solomon Temple Church in Athens, Alabama.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Anne Fayette Oliver Jarman on June 10, 1938, and to that union eleven children were born.

In addition to his wife, Cleveland Sr. was preceded in death by a son Cleveland E. Jarman, Jr.; two daughters, Sharon Rose Jarman Webster and Beverly Renee Jarman Langford; two grandsons, Cedric Hatcher and Cleve Jarman III.

Mr. Jarman was a former employee of Baggett Transportation, Sharon Trucking and First United Methodist Church of Decatur. Cleveland was a World War Two United States Army Veteran.

Cleveland was fondly called "Mr. Cleve" in his community where he had a spirit of servitude, nurturing, giving of self and a compassionate spirit that prevailed amongst his family and people he adored.
